

Stauff UK continue their support of Team WD-40 in the BSB Championship

Stauff UK and GR Motosport Team WD-40 Specialist have today announced their continued partnership in the BSB Superbike Championships.

The Sheffield based hydraulic accessories, components and pipework specialists joined the team mid season in 2013 and shared the enjoyment of supporting Joe Francis in his win of the Monster Moto 3 Championship and Tommy Aquino's fantastic results in his first season of Superstock 1000.

Iain Stansbie, Head of Stauff UK Group Marketing commented "We thoroughly enjoyed our first season with Brent and the team and see many benefits of our continued involvement in this fast growing sport.

Our roots in the UK are in Sheffield and we very much like the thought of supporting a team from the City, however we are part of a Global brand and see the fan base of viewer from around the world as a benefit to the Stauff Corporation."

Team Owner Brent Gladwin commented: "Our plans for 2014 are taking shape nicely to enable us to continue our campaign. We are delighted to welcome Stauff UK back as one of our Primary sponsors for the 2014 season and the whole of the GR Motosport team and our title sponsor WD-40 are looking forward to a successful season and partnership.

Brent Gladwin (GR Motosport) and Iain Stansbie (Stauff UK) following the agreement to continue the partnership for 2014.

Brent concluded: "There are many ways to follow the team's progress, like us on Facebook; follow us on Twitter or simply come and have a chat with us in the Paddock, just look for the blue and yellow ... you can't really miss us! We love the interaction with our fantastic supporters and thank them whole heartedly."